312	3/3 • A cultural powerhouse, Villa Albani Torlonia was designed in the mid-eighteenth century to house the prestigious collection of antiquities of Cardinale Alessandro Albani. The Leda sitting at the centre of the Gallery is a first-century Roman copy of an earlier Greek statue from the IV century B.C. attributed to Timotheos. Creative Director @alessandro_michele's desire was in fact to magnify the importance of the value of the copy, at times more authentic and real than its original. Imagery captured inside the Leda Gallery of Villa Albani Torlonia by #YorgosLanthimos will appear in a special art book available from November 2019. #AlessandroMichele #GucciCruise20 @idea.ltd	11/06/2019

367	Celebrating its first @michelinguide Star, awarded yesterday, @gucciosteria da Massimo Bottura enters the 2020 Italian Michelin Star Guide, just two years after opening. Chef de cuisine Karime López @karylmt is the only woman chef among the new Italian entries to #guidamichelinit. Her menu for the restaurant challenges the traditional perception of Italian cuisine, creating playful takes on classic dishes. The restaurant's origins are born from a childhood friendship between @gucci CEO and President #MarcoBizzarri and Michelin-starred chef @massimobottura. Located in Florence's historic Piazza della Signoria, on the ground floor of the #GucciGarden exhibit and boutique space designed by @alessandro_michele, #GucciOsteria celebrates their shared love of two quintessential Italian cultural themes: food and fashion. "This is an incredible achievement that fills us with joy. I have been friends with Marco for over 40 years and this is a wonderful recognition for the vision that we have created together with the Gucci family. #AlessandroMichele has created an incredible space, and his support and inspiration have fueled us both over the past few years," #MassimoBottura. #michelinstar20	7/11/2019

579	With a view to providing a lasting response to the current pandemic, @kering_official, which includes Gucci, contributes to the fight against Covid-19. In the days ahead, the Group will provide the French health service with surgical masks and its preparing to manufacture new ones—while complying with the strictest health protection measures for its staff members—and made a financial donation to the Institut Pasteur to support its research into Covid-19. This contribution follows those already made in China and Italy in recent weeks. On March 11 in Italy, Kering and its Houses made donations to the four major foundation hospitals in Lombardy, Veneto, Tuscany and Lazio. More recently, Gucci responded to a call to fashion companies from the Tuscany Region for surgical masks and medical overalls, and aims to donate to 1.1 million surgical masks and 55.000 medical overalls in the coming weeks, subject to relevant authorizations. On January 28 in China, Kering and its Houses announced a donation to the Hubei Red Cross Foundation to help fight the spread of the virus.	24/03/2020

580	We are All in This Together. Gucci stands with its global community to fight the #Covid19 pandemic by making two separate donations to crowdfunding campaigns. Locally, in Italy where the company is based, a 1 million euros donation to the Italian Civil Protection Department #DipartimentoProtezioneCivile in partnership with @intesanpaolo's #ForFunding platform to reinforce Italy's health services and to source new ICU beds. Globally, Gucci donated 1 million euros to the United Nations Foundation's Covid-19 Solidarity Response Fund in support of the World Health Organization @who through Facebook's US$10 million Matching Fundraiser to monitor and collect data on the spread of the virus to strengthen ICUs across the world, supply protection equipment to health personnel and fast-track the creation of vaccines and therapies. The initiatives are captured in an original illustration gifted by Rome-based artist @mp5art, a person who holds their hand on their heart a message of human solidarity. Here comes the desire to baptize our new encounters by naming them after a language that has marvelously ancient roots: classical music language. Accordingly, there will be symphonies, rhapsodies, madrigals, nocturnes, overtures, concerts and minuets in the constellation of my creative path. Music, after all, has the sacred power to produce reverberations and connections. It travels beyond the borders, reconnecting the fragility to the infinity.” A new path in fashion that leaves behind the paraphernalia of leitmotifs that colonized our prior world, according to @alessandro_michele in ‘The Sacred Power of Producing Reverberations’, his diary entry for May 3, 2020. #AlessandroMichele Read his diary through link in bio.	23/05/2020

709	Episode 2: At the Café - Overture Of Something That Never Ended In this second episode directed by @gus_van_sant and @alessandro_michele, we follow Silvia (@silviacalderoni) to the neighborhood café, where she meets a friend, played by @arlo.parks, the musician and poet from London. They have a meandering conversation until realising they are surrounded by others in a variety of surreal situations. Silvia's companion leaves to head off on a sightseeing trip around Rome in a car with some friends. The return of the mysterious flyer sets in motion a journey inside a world where all is not as it seems. The scenes from the café explore surreal situations through conversations between characters who are dubbed in Italian with sub-titles; including Silvia and Arlo's character. The dubbing is an homage to the dubbing heard in Italian vintage cinema. #GucciOverture #GucciFest #AlessandroMichele Music: 'Forces at Work' written by Million/Mercer Licensed by Courtesy of the Domino Publishing and Recording Companies Ltd. and courtesy of Bar None Records. 736	Episode 5: 'The Neighbours' - Overture Of Something That Never Ended We return to the apartment where the day began, but this time meet characters in the homes surrounding, gaining a voyeuristic view into their lives, fantasies and unguarded private moments—including a painter intently cleaning her fake eyelashes, played by artist @arianapapademetropoulos. Someone in a bathtub watches television, as the music video for 'Therefore I Am' by @billieeilish directed by #HarmonyKorine fills our screens, playing in its entirety. These vignettes captured through the frames of the windows ultimately combine into a reversal of perspective, as Silvia once more takes centre stage.
