

Jacinta
the hummingbird!

Jacinta is a beautiful hummingbird.
She is always proud of her speed.

Question: What makes you feel proud of yourself?

But Jacinta is not only proud. Actually, she thinks she is the best so she is rude to the other birds in town, specially to Pedro, the blackbird.

Question: How do you think Pedro feels about Jacinta's attitude?

Pedro, the blackbird and Betty, the bluebird like to fly around. They want to be as fast as Jacinta so they asked her for advice but she told them: "You are normal birds, you will never fly as fast as I do. Don't bother me, stupid slow birds, ha ha ha".

Question: Which word describes Jacinta's attitude better? Why?
Choose one of the following options.

A. Arrogant

B. Disrespectful

C. Friendly

One day, Jacinta was flying but she was so fast that she couldn't see Rosa, the big heron, so they crashed.

Rosa was so angry so she decided to insult and beat Jacinta.

Activity: Make a drawing of how you think Jacinta feels about Rosa's reaction. Write a sentence explaining your drawing.

Once at home, Jacinta felt so bad. She started to reflect about her attitude with Pedro and Betty and noticed that she was also like Rosa.

I feel sad

Question: Do you think to be rude and violent to others is OK? Why?

Jacinta decided to apologize to Pedro and Betty. She finally saw that being rude to other people is not OK.

Rosa was rude to her and made her feels so bad, the same as Pedro and Betty felt every time she treated them badly.

Activity: Who have you been rude to in your classroom?
Write a sentence apologizing to that person

Jacinta
the hummingbird!